

Integrated Telecom Announces Chancery Court approval for final Company liquidation.

Cupertino California July 19, 2006. The Delaware Chancery Court has approved the appointment of James Williams the court appointed Trustee, as Trustee under Delaware law with full authority to make final distribution the remaining assets of Integrated Telecom Express. The company plans to announce a distribution amount and timetable in the next few weeks. EquiServe now CompuServe will be the transfer agent, which handled the company's prior distribution. All current due bill holders will receive a letter from the transfer agent explaining the process and procedure for the distribution.